BOP

B (Blessing) O (Others) with P (Purpose)

At CrossTALKS, the formula for success has always been to B.O.P (Blessing Others with Purpose). We know this is good business stewardship because it is written in the Bible, Acts 20:35 ... It is more blessed to give than to receive.

To build your life and business successfully, you need to be prepared to give back to those in need with your time, treasure and talents. But where to start? First, look around your immediate surrounding area. Identify people and organizations you know you are called to best serve. Think about which groups you feel passionate about and list at least 3 different options. With your list, reach out to your team/partners/Board of Advisors to get their feedback and interest. Have them vote on the best option. Once everyone is on board, the next step is to write out who, exactly, you would be serving. How much money you plan to donate, the time line and specific milestones for success.

Now, let's get started....

Go, Go, Go!

1. List 3 potential organizations you would like to volunteer your time, treasure and efforts towards?

2. Who can you reach out to start brainstorming ideas with?

3. What is the one action you will do every week to accomplish the above?

If applicable, what courageous conversation do you need to have?

Who will hold you accountable? Ask your accountability partner to complete the following:

“I, _____, commit to supporting _____ over the next 3 weeks.”
